

please leave the telephone privacy act alone. we are pleased with not getting any phone calls...wish you could do something about the computer calls that we cant hang up on